CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

5. The South China Sub-Bureau activated an intelligence section (Ch'ing Pao Tsu)(情報組) on the Macao border, to be responsible for clandestine work. The section consists of fourteen persons, under the leadership of YU Hua-chiao (余華嬌).
6. Personnel of the International Communist Party in Macao at the end of July include the following: ****

- a. CH'EN Man (陳滿),  liaison officer.
- b. CH'EN Mu-chou (陳慕洲), chief of intelligence, age 48, native of Shih Ching Hsiang (石景鄉), Hsinhui Hsien (113-06, 22-34), Kwangtung, and relative of CH'EN Man; address, 7 Ping Ma Lu (兵馬路), Erh Lung Hou P'ao (二龍頭炮), Macao.
- c. TS'AO Chin-hui (曹錦輝), aka George (Tso-chih, 佐治) TS'AO, adviser of the action group of the Macao Special Commissioner's Office; address, 21 Rua Almirante Costa Cabral, Macao.
- d. LI Ho (李和) and other members of smuggling groups who will work with the action group.

* Comment. An earlier directive from the same office is quoted in 25X1A.

 Comment. Personnel previously reported include the following:

25X1A CH'EN Man, identified as in charge of collecting Chinese intelligence and as an arms smuggler; see 25X1A
25X1A HSIAO K'ei; see 25X1A
25X1A LIANG P'ei, leader of the Macao action group and committee member of the Macao Association for Liberation of Hong Kong, Kowloon, and Macao; see 25X1A
25X1A MA Ling; see 25X1A
25X1A TU Lan, committee member of the Association for Liberation of Macao, Hong Kong, and Kowloon and head of the organization section of the Macao branch of the South China Politburo; see 25X1A

 Comment. Action group activities in Macao are discussed in 25X1A

25X1A * Comment. This appears to be a new name for the organization previously reported as the "Far East Cominform." An international Communist organization, or a Communist organization with non-Chinese members, may exist in Macao, but it is to be doubted that it is known by the designation given above.
